Our crew's unique recommendations

Note:
We draw all of these sailing models ourselves

New block:
The recommended boats are currently trending thanks to their ergonomical and cutting-edge design. By moving the galley into the cockpit they significantly increased the overall space without sacrificing any of the comfort. This means more space to invite people and 6 extra cabins at your disposal.

Our expert skippers are recommending Norway and Mexico as this summer's most exotic and little-visited destinations. Perfect for intermediate and expert skippers who want to embark on new challenges and witness remarkable sights.
